The inner envelope must also contain three sealed envelopes, one for the "administrative dossier" of the offer, one for the "technical dossier" of the offer and one for the "financial offer". Each of these envelopes must clearly indicate the content ("Administrative dossier", "Technical dossier" and "Financial offer").

6. Submission of a tender implies acceptance of all the terms and conditions set out in this invitation to tender, in the tender specifications and in the draft contract and, where appropriate, waiver of the tenderer's own general or specific terms and conditions.  - * Any additional information including that referred to above will be posted on AGRI EUROPA call for tenders website http://ec.europa.eu/agriculture/calls-for-tender/index_en.htm. The website will be updated regularly and it is the tenderers' responsibility to check for updates and modifications during the tendering period.
 - After the opening of tenders
 - * If clarification is required or if obvious clerical errors in the tender need to be corrected, the contracting authority may contact the tenderer provided the terms of the tender are not modified as a result.
9. This invitation to tender is in no way binding on the European Commission. The European Commission's contractual obligation commences only upon signature of the contract with the successful tenderer.
10. Up to the point of signature, the contracting authority may either abandon the procurement or cancel the award procedure, without the candidates or tenderers being entitled to claim any compensation. This decision must be substantiated and the candidates or tenderers notified.
11. Once the Commission has opened the tender, the document shall become the property of the European Commission and it shall be treated confidentially.
