- "Microbiology for traditional and innovative mountain products" with Professoressa Claudia Picozzi.
- "Geographic and Historical Development of The Mountain in The Long Run" with Professor Giuseppe De Luca.

First Level Specialising Master in Project Management for Mountain areas

New training courses for the 2022/2023 academic year are underway: the lessons of the First Level Specialising Master in Project Management for Mountain areas will start in November. Participants will study to become expert planners for the sustainable development of mountain territories. Again, there is still time to enroll and apply for one of the 20 scholarships to fully cover tuition costs. The deadline is October 3rd.

CALLS, INTERSHIPS and JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Calls for mountain areas

- Expression of interest in the presentation of intervention proposals for the relaunching of Italian tourism, through infrastructural adjustments, planning and promotion of tourism products with a view to sustainability - Deadline: 30/09/2022.

Public notice, under the "Montagna Italia" measure of the Development and Cohesion Plan of the Ministry of Tourism, as per CIPESSE resolution no. 58/2021.

- Fund for the enhancement and promotion of disadvantaged territorial areas bordering regions with a special statute - Deadline: 31/10/2022.

The fund is intended to finance projects for economic development and integration in favor of the municipalities bordering the regions with special status.

- Interreg Alpine Space - Small Scale Projects - Deadline: 16/12/2022.

In the period 2021-2027, the Interreg Alpine Space program co-finances projects contributing to four main objectives or priorities. Each priority can be declined into specific objectives, which define the direction in which we want to develop the Alpine region.

- Expression of interest for the presentation of projects of Renewable Energy Communities - Lombardy Region - Deadline: 30/12/2022.

The general objective is to accompany Municipalities through the analysis and evaluation of the proposals presented so that local initiatives are effectively transformed into active and working energy communities.
