Edolo is a mountain village in the Lombardy region, northern Italy (approx. 145 km north east of Milan), located in the upper Camonica Valley.

The experience of UNIMONT was established 25 years ago thanks to the collaboration between the University of Milan and public institutions with the aim of preventing the abandonment of mountain territories, promoting the enhancement of the territory by investing in young people and providing specific training and research activities.

- The network of collaborations with mountain stakeholders allows the organization of seminars and discussions.
- The seminars offer a unique opportunity for students to connect with the mountain innovation ecosystem and with key actors and best practices.
- All seminars are recorded and made available on-demand to be viewed at any time.

The Bachelor's degree program offers study opportunities abroad through the Erasmus+ program and the Swiss Mobility Program.

Most students taking this option are geared towards taking courses that broaden their scientific knowledge and undertaking internships or undergraduate dissertations in established laboratories.

Grades and related CFUs obtained at partner universities are recognized in almost all cases, reassuring students that the activities they do at the host university are then positively assessed in their curriculum.

TUTOR SERVICE

Every student has the opportunity to ACCESS A TUTOR from the teaching staff who is specifically assigned to them, to deal with all their needs related to the teaching activity (study choices, internships, as well as organizational and cultural aspects).

DSA CONTACT PERSON

Students with SLDs can benefit from support measures and dispensing and compensatory measures. For the Master in Edolo, you can write to the SLD contact person for information.

BOOK LOAN

The UNIMONT Centre hosts a Library, where students can borrow books to study and widen their knowledge. In addition, the Interlibrary Loan service provides access to books from the Agraria Library.

MOUNTAINSIDE*

The UNIMONT Centre is a lively "platform" for the development of mountain areas, and the tales of Students, Researchers, and Professors are a testimony.

The video pills are available on the UNIMONT's YouTube channel.

The location of the UNIMONT Centre of the University of Milan in a small mountain town in the heart of the Alps is strategic to help acquire specific knowledge of mountain contexts.

You can visit the venue through a Virtual Tour

● Book your visit to the UNIMONT Centre of Edolo, to subscribe: CLICK HERE

● Where to stay?

You can request the list of apartments to rent in Edolo from the Education Secretariat: write an email to corso.edolo@unimi.it

● “FIND A ROOMMATE”

As of this year, there has been a WhatsApp Group of students who, like you, are looking for accommodation in Edolo. Write "find a roommate" on number 388.3559407, and you will be immediately added to the group.
