Caigua Project experimental fields set up in Darfo Boario Terme (BS)

The first experimental fields with 4 varieties of Caigua (Cyclanthera pedata) were set up in the Municipality of Darfo Boario Terme (BS) in the last few weeks, in collaboration with the farm "Il castagneto" of Piancamuno (BS). The project, led by the UNIMONT centre of the University of Milan, aims to identify the different morphological and growth characteristics of the cultivars in order to understand how the Vallecamonica variety has adapted to the environment of the Italian Alps.

UNIMONT will be mapping priority reforestation areas in Italy

The UNIMONT Centre of the University di Milano notes that, in the context of a research doctorate, the research group of Professor Giorgio Vacchiano - Department of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences (DISAA) of the University of Milan intends to collect expert opinions on reforestation priorities in Italy.

COWORCare project: a map of coworking spaces for Alpine areas

If you are a coworker, manage a coworking space or a private assistance institute, or are interested in the topic of coworking and coworkation, we need your help: take part in the survey and help us improve the map.

More than one hundred participants, in person and online, at the event dedicated to sustainability

On Thursday 6th July, more than one hundred people - in presence and online - participated in the event "Sustainability between responsibility and opportunity, scenarios for mountain farms" organized by Ge.S.Di.Mont., UNIMONT – University of Milan in collaboration with Brescia Chamber of Commerce and ProBrixia, within FUTURA LAB in-depth orientation corner towards FUTURA EXPO 2023 Economia X l'ambiente.

AGRITECH

Agritech – the National Centre for Agricultural Technologies is a national project financed with NRRP funds that involves 28 universities, 5 research centres, and 18 companies. The UNIMONT centre of the University of Milan will operate within Spoke 7, focusing on mountain areas with the aim of promoting a multifunctional production system that favours the agro-ecological and socio-economic sustainability of these territories.

Contribute to the mapping of Italian plant agro-biodiversity: report local varieties in your area

UNIMONT, a Centre of the University of Milan, is mapping and characterizing traditional Italian local varieties through a citizen science activity, i.e. involving citizens in the collection of scientific data in order to integrate the map of Italian plant agro-biodiversity. This initiative is supported by the NRRP Agritech project - National Center for Agricultural Technologies.

STUDY IN UNIMONT

Enroll in the new Master's Degree MOUNTAINSIDE

Consult the access requirements, the procedure to be followed and the deadlines to be respected to enroll in the Master's Degree "Valorization And Sustainable Development Of Mountain Areas" – MOUNTAINSIDE.

The voices of the Master's Degree MOUNTAINSIDE: returning to study at UNIMONT after a Bachelor's degree

Francesco Bertera graduated at the UNIMONT Campus in 2018 and started working in a forestry consortium. Last September he chose to return to study in Edolo to improve his knowledge and train as an expert specialist in mountain territories through the multidisciplinary study path offered by the Master's Degree - MOUNTAINSIDE.

The voices of the Master's Degree MOUNTAINSIDE: exploring the mountains and interacting with local stakeholders

After getting a three-year degree in "Viticulture and Oenology", Debora Giorgi was looking for an innovative study path that would allow her to live her passion for the mountains. She therefore chose to enroll in the Master's Degree Course "Valorization and Sustainable Development of Mountain Areas" - MOUNTAINSIDE.
