NEWS HIGHLIGHTS

UNIMONT at Futura Expo!

On Oct. 8, 9 and 10, UNIMONT will be present at Futura Expo in Brescia, find out all the events and workshops scheduled.

UNIMONT leads the Horizon Europe MountResilience project

UNIMONT, hub of the University of Milan, is lead partner in the Horizon project "MountResilience," entirely dedicated to the study of actions that mountain communities across Europe can take to adapt to the challenge of climate change. There will be two project presentation events: in Val Camonica in September and in Brescia in October.

UNIMONT Hub of the University of Milan inaugurates Academic Year 2023/2024

With the start of the 2023/2024 Academic Year, UNIMONT classrooms are back to enthusiastically welcome students. In fact, starting September 25, 2023, classes for the Academic Year 2022/2023 for the Bachelor's Degree Program in Valorization and Protection of the Mountain Environment and Territory and the Master's Degree Program in Valorization and Sustainable Development of Mountain Areas kicked off.

Summer School 2023 'Natural Dyes: From Theory to Practice' comes to an end

The 2023 edition of the Summer School organized by UNIMONT, a hub of the University of Milan, has come to an end. This series of theoretical-practical lectures-held partly online and partly in-person-allowed about 20 students from UNIMONT-promoted courses to experiment in the preparation of dyeing materials to be sourced in the mountainous area with Prof. Maria Antonietta Tovini (Academy of Fine Arts of Naples), Prof. Gigliola Borgonovo (Lecturer at the University of Milano) and Prof. Stefania Mazzini (Lecturer at the University of Milano).

THE DAY AFTER THE PNRR - UNIMONT at the first edition of the iFEL Forum organized by ANCI Foundation to talk about Ecological Transition

The PNRR offers a unique opportunity for Italian cities, enabling investments in key areas such as sustainable mobility and energy efficiency. Municipalities must adapt to this structural change, collaborating with other public and private entities to maximize their impact. The goal of the first iFEL forum is to help public managers develop innovative strategies for digital and ecological transition in conjunction with civil society. In this context is the interesting session on the topic of ecological transition in which prof. ssa Anna Giorgi of the University of Milan - UNIMONT pole- together with Enrico Giovannini, ASviS Scientific Director, Carlo Alberto Nucci, Professor of Electrical Systems for Energy at the University of Bologna and National Representative Mission Climate Neutral and Smart Cities, Antonio Felice Uricchio, ANVUR President with the moderation of Annalisa Gramigna, IFEL Foundation.

International success for the fifth edition of Climbing for Climate

As part of Climbing for Climate, an event organized annually by the RUS - Network of Universities for Sustainable Development, UNIMONT, a pole of excellence of the University of Milano, in collaboration with the CAI section of Pezzo - Ponte di Legno, organized an outing in the area attended by more than 100 people from 13 countries of the European Union.

"Reviving the Mountain", UNIMONT at Piacenza's Festival of Contemporary Thinking.

Anna Giorgi, Head of the UNIMONT hub of the University of Milan and editor of the upcoming White Paper on Mountains, discussed with Leonardo Caffo, philosopher and writer, and Andrea Colamedici, essayist and publisher, the need to change the gaze with which we observe the mountain environment. Mountains, in fact, remain a constitutive element of the environment that today we must not only preserve, but revive, knowing that there is no cure in distance. The meeting was held on September 23 as part of the Piacenza Contemporary Thinking Festival.

Great success for the kick-off of the European Horizon MountResilience Project.

For three days from Tuesday, September 19, in Ponte di Legno, more than 80 researchers from 13 countries participated in the kick-off of the Horizon Europe MountResilience Project, which is led by the University Degli Studi di Milano with its UNIMONT hub.

UNIMONT at the conference "Mountain agriculture between tradition and innovation"

An interesting meeting on the Guidelines of the new Common Agricultural Policy was held on Wednesday, September 13, in Foresto Sparso (BG). The guests of the meeting, introduced by the greetings of Carlo Ponti (Mayor of Foresto Sparso (BG)) and Adriana Bellini (President of Comunità Montana dei laghi Bergamaschi) were Prof. Anna Giorgi, Head of the UNIMONT pole of the University of Milan and President of the three-year and master's degree courses in Valorizzazione e Tutela dell'Ambiente e del Territorio Montano, and Dr. Enzo Ferrazzoli, director of Confagricoltura Bergamo. The meeting was moderated by Dr. Renato Giavazzi, president of Confagricoltura Bergamo.

RacConta la Montagna, seventh edition presented.

From October 2023 to May 2024, RacConta la Montagna, the literary review of the University of the Mountains in Edolo, returns, now in its seventh edition, with eight appointments and at least two important novelties. The first is that from this year RacConta la Montagna becomes itinerant, offering some of its meetings not only at the Unimont headquarters in Via Morino in Edolo, but also in symbolic places in the area. The second concerns the desire to broaden the target audience of the review not only from a numerical point of view, but also from a generational one, with the addition of moments dedicated to elementary school pupils and preadolescents
