The Seminar is inspired by the PRIN PNRR research project "Itinerel" on cultural and religious itineraries, coordinated by Stella Coglievina since 2023, where both speakers took part in an interdisciplinary research team opened also to local institutions and non-profit associations in charge of trail maintenance, conservation, and promotion, and from the researches conducted at the University of Insubria-Como within the Master's degree program in "Hospitality for Sustainable Tourism Development" as professors of law and religion and of public law for sustainable cultural tourism.
